

Université Laval at a glance

Updated: November 1, 2024

Yan Doubilet

Education

- 17 faculties and over 60 departments, schools, and institutes
- 600 programs
- Over 90% of undergraduate programs include internships, often paid
- A flexible learning environment:
 - 57% of courses are in person
 - 33% of courses are online
 - 10% of courses are hybrid or HyFlex

Dany Vachon

Research

- Almost $475 million in funding for research and innovation
- Over 300 research centres, chairs, institutes, and other groups, including:
 - 6 Canada Excellence Research Chairs secured since 2008
 - 92 Canada Research Chairs
 - 82 Partnership Research Chairs
 - 41 Educational Leadership Chairs
- Many affiliated research institutions, including the CHU de Québec–Université Laval Research Centre, North America's premier francophone health research centre

Dany Vachon

Student and graduate community

- A vast network of more than 350,000 graduates worldwide
- Almost 13,500 diplomas and short-program certificates awarded in 2023–2024
- More than 55,000 students enrolled for at least one semester in 2023–2024
- More than 47,000 students enrolled in fall 2024, including:
 - 66% full time
 - 28% in graduate programs
- Nearly 950 medical residents and nearly 400 postdoctoral fellows
- More than 50,000 students enrolled in non-accredited continuing education activities. There are also more than 2,300 at Université du 3^e âge

Staff

Ranked as one of the top 2 employers in the Québec region by Forbes, the University has over 10,000 employees:

- 1700 professors
 - Almost 2,500 lecturers and other teaching and research staff
 - Almost 3,300 administrative and support staff members
 - More than 4,000 students work on campus each year
- Université Laval also collaborates with:
- Nearly 780 adjunct professors
 - More than 1,100 clinical professors
 - More than 7,500 professionals providing clinical instruction across our health and social services network

Québec City
Canada

UNIVERSITÉ
LAVAL

Mathieu Bélangier

Campus life that can't be beat

Set in the heart of Québec City, a UNESCO World Heritage site, Université Laval offers students an exceptional academic and living environment.

- 1.8 km² of campus, 60% of it covered in green space and trees
- 40 buildings connected by footpaths, 8 km of bike paths, and more than 5 km of underground tunnels
- 2 campus buildings in Old Québec
- A lively cultural, athletic, and social environment
- 2,300 rooms in sustainable student résidences
- A library with 6 million documents and thousands of electronic resources available online
- The cutting-edge Centre Apprentiss, the only interdisciplinary healthcare learning centre of its kind in Canada
- PEPS, one of the country's largest modern sports complexes
- The Rouge et Or, one of the best university sports programs in the country, with more than 500 student athletes
- Forêt Montmorency, the largest teaching and research forest in the world

Yan Doublet

Yan Doublet

A sustainable university

- Canada's first voluntary carbon-neutral university
- Ranked 19th in the world and the top francophone university according to the 2024 Times Higher Education Impact Rankings, based on the 17 United Nations Sustainable Development Goals
- Ranked Platinum, the highest certification level, in the STARS (Sustainability Tracking Assessment & Rating System)
- Unlimited access to public transit in Québec City and Lévis for the student community with the University travel pass (LPU)

Internationalization

- More than 9,000 international or permanent-resident students (17% of total student enrolment) in 2023–2024
- Over 900 members of the student community taking advantage of international mobility programs
- Almost 860 partnership agreements with some 555 institutions of higher education and various organizations in 80 countries
- More than 50% of research publications produced in collaboration with at least one scientist from another country

Pub PHOTO

Damy Vachon

Julie Moffet

Damy Vachon